Application to Work for a Recognised Seasonal Employer

Application for a limited visa

Important information

This form is only to be used to apply for a limited visa to work for a recognised seasonal employer that has offered you temporary seasonal work in the horticulture or viticulture industries. If two or more recognised seasonal employers have recruited you to work for them one after the other during your visa, you only need to fill out one visa application and pay one visa fee and immigration levy.

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation. If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information via VisaView you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.

Limited visas

All applications under Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE) Instructions to work for a recognised seasonal employer must be made as a limited visa application for an 'express purpose' (in this case to work for an RSE).

There are several restrictions on people who hold limited visas.

- You must leave New Zealand no later than the date that your visa expires.
- You may not apply for a different kind of visa while you are in New Zealand. You can apply for a further limited visa, but it must be for the same express purpose.
- You may not request a special direction or a visa under section 61 of the Immigration Act 2009 while you are in New Zealand.
- You do not have any of the appeal rights that holders of other kinds of visas have, such as the right to appeal to the Immigration and Protection Tribunal.

If you are in New Zealand unlawfully after your limited visa expires, you will be liable for immediate deportation from New Zealand.

For your application to be accepted you must submit all of the documents that are requested. If you do not submit all required documents, your application will not be accepted and it will be returned to you.

All supporting documents must be in English or translated by a recognised private or official translation service.

Application requirements

This form must be completed, signed and accompanied by the application fee and immigration levy (see our Fees Guide (INZ 1028), or refer to our website www.immigration.govt.nz/fees). Alternatively, the application fee and immigration levy may be provided separately by the prospective recognised seasonal employer if they have agreed to this in advance.

You must include with this form all the following documents.

- Your passport or travel document* (which must be valid for at least three months past the date you plan to leave New Zealand).
- A recent passport-size photograph attached to this form at 'Section A: Applicant's personal details'.
- A completed Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) (if required, see 'Health requirements' below).
- A completed RSE Instructions Supplementary Medical Certificate (HIV Test Form) (INZ 1143) (if required, see 'Health requirements' below)
- Provide evidence of either holding or being approved to hold acceptable medical insurance such as an insurance certificate or letter of approval from an insurance company.

You must provide a copy of an employment agreement between yourself and a New Zealand RSE employer that has an agreement to recruit overseas workers. The employment agreement must be signed by both the RSE and you. If you have been employed to work for different employers for consecutive periods (e.g. three months for the first employer and four months for the second employer) you must have an employment agreement from each employer.

For further information, including where to send your application and supporting documents, see the Guide to Working for a Recognised Seasonal Employer (INZ 1144).

*While you can provide a certified copy of your passport with your application, we highly recommend you provide your original passport. This will enable us to process your application faster and it may be needed to complete your application. Please note during the processing of an application an immigration officer may request any document, including your original passport.

Health requirements

Applicants applying for a limited visa (regardless of intended length of stay) under the RSE Limited Visa Instructions must complete a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) if you:

- are from a country, area or territory not listed as having a low-incidence of tuberculosis (TB)*, or
- have spent more than a total of three months in the past five years in a country, area or territory not listed as having a low incidence of TB, or
- have spent six consecutive months since your last Chest X-ray Certificate was issued (if you have previously applied for a visa) in a country, area or territory not listed as having a low incidence of TB.

Pregnant women are not required to have an X-ray. If you are pregnant a medical certificate confirming this will be required from an Immigration New Zealand (INZ) Panel Doctor.

All applicants applying for a limited visa under the RSE Limited Visa Instructions who are citizens of, or are normally resident in a country listed as having high risk factors for HIV/AIDS must complete an RSE Scheme Supplementary Medical Certificate (HIV Test Form).

Medical certificates must be less than three months old when you lodge your application unless you have provided one with an earlier application and that certificate is less than 36 months old.

See the Guide to Working for a Recognised Seasonal Employer for a list of countries with:

- a low incidence of TB, and
- high-risk factors for HIV/AIDS.

Medical insurance requirements

All applicants applying for a limited visa under the RSE Limited Visa Instructions must provide evidence of holding or being approved to hold acceptable medical insurance.

See the Guide to Working for a Recognised Seasonal Employer for information on the RSE medical insurance requirements.

Character requirements

You are required to declare in this application if you have ever been convicted of, charged with, or investigated for anything against the law of any country. You are also required to declare if you have ever been deported, refused entry, or removed from any country excluding New Zealand. If you have been removed, deported or excluded from any country, you may not meet character requirements and may not be eligible to be granted a visa.

Although a police certificate is not required for temporary applicants that intend staying in New Zealand for less than 24 months, you may be required to provide a police certificate with your application if you have spent 24 months or longer in New Zealand (including any time you have already spent in New Zealand). If you have provided a police certificate with a previous application, it is valid for 24 months.

When filling in this form, please write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS. Tear off and retain pages 1 to 2 if you wish.

Application to Work for a Recognised Seasonal Employer

Application for a limited visa

Application type

This form may be used to apply for an RSE limited visa.

Tick one of the following as appropriate.

I am applying for a limited visa from outside New Zealand.

Tick this box if you want to travel to New Zealand to work for an RSE.

I am applying for a further limited visa from New Zealand.

Tick this box if you are in New Zealand, currently hold an RSE limited visa, and are applying for a further RSE limited visa. Note: if you are in New Zealand and applying for a further RSE limited visa, you need to allow sufficient time for a decision to be made on your application before your current visa expires. If your visa does expire, your application for a further visa does not make your stay in New Zealand lawful or give you the right to remain in New Zealand while your application is being considered.

If you are in New Zealand on an RSE limited visa, any application you submit for any other temporary or residence class visa (except for another RSE visa) will be declined.

Section D Tax obligations

You must pay tax while earning wages in New Zealand. To pay the right amount of tax you need to be issued an IRD number by Inland Revenue.

If you tick 'yes' in question D1 below, you give permission for information you provided in Section A and your employer's address to be sent to Inland Revenue for the purpose of issuing an IRD number. This will only occur if your application for a limited visa is approved.

If you already have an IRD number from previous work in New Zealand, you do not need a new number and should not answer this question. To confirm the IRD number you were issued, you can call Inland Revenue on 0800 227 774 while you are in New Zealand.

D1 Do you want your information sent to Inland Revenue to apply for an IRD number? Yes No

Note: The answer to this question will not affect the outcome of your RSE limited visa application.

Inland Revenue privacy statement

If you have requested an IRD number in this application at 'Section D: Tax obligations', Inland Revenue will hold the information supplied. They may also exchange information about you with the Ministry of Social Development, the Ministry of Justice, the Department of Labour, the Ministry of Education, the New Zealand Customs Service, the Accident Compensation Corporation or their contracted agencies, as well as to overseas countries with which Inland Revenue has an information supply agreement. Inland Revenue also has an agreement to supply information to Statistics New Zealand for statistical purposes only.

You may ask to see the personal information Inland Revenue holds about you by calling 0800 227 774 while you are in New Zealand. Unless Inland Revenue has a lawful reason for withholding the information, they will show it to you and correct any errors.

Section H Declaration by applicant

I understand the questions and contents of this form, and the information I have provided is true and correct.

I will inform Immigration New Zealand of any relevant fact or change of circumstances that may (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying.

I understand I am responsible for making sure I leave New Zealand before my visa expires and that if I do not I will be liable for deportation.

I understand that while in New Zealand, any application I submit for a temporary or residence class visa (other than under RSE Limited Entry Instructions) will be declined.

I understand that Immigration New Zealand may provide information about my entitlement to work to potential employers via the online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

Residents and people holding work visas for a stay of two years or more (and their dependent children) are eligible for publicly-funded health and disability services. Other work or limited visa holders, students, and visitor visa holders generally are not eligible. People covered by New Zealand's Reciprocal Health Agreements with Australia and the United Kingdom are entitled to publicly-funded health care for immediately necessary medical treatment only. I understand that if not entitled to free treatment, I will pay for any health care or medical assistance I may require in New Zealand.

I authorise INZ to provide information about my state of health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my state of health to INZ. I authorise any insurance provider to provide information about my insurance cover to INZ.

I authorise INZ to make any enquiries it considers necessary in respect of information provided on this form in order to make a decision on this application and enquiries about my subsequent immigration status. I authorise any agency which holds information (including personal information) relevant to those matters to disclose that information to INZ.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, INZ will return my application.

I understand that if granted a limited visa to work in New Zealand for a recognised seasonal employer, I am only able to work for the employer and in the position that is noted on my limited visa label.

I understand that any breach of my limited visa conditions will result in me becoming liable for deportation and I will be deported from New Zealand.

Signature of applicant Date

Important – please note:

1. The application fee and immigration levy (set by the New Zealand Government) is all that Immigration New Zealand requires you to pay to submit this application form. The current fee and immigration levy is available in the Fees Guide (INZ 1028), available from any Immigration New Zealand office or at www.immigration.govt.nz. Where INZ has engaged a third party provider to receive applications on their behalf (via a Visa Application Centre), you will be charged a visa facilitation fee.
2. This application will not be prioritised if you use an agent to complete or submit it on your behalf. Please seek further information from an Immigration New Zealand immigration officer if you have any questions.
